

DCP acknowledges and thanks The Mormon Church for it's April 24th workday

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints work crew had a VERY successful workday at the park on Saturday,

The church assembled a group of 55 folks of all ages, from 2 to 85 or so. Who worked from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm to improve the park

A very abbreviated list of what was accomplished includes....

- Clearing brush behind Vega Metals
- Planting more perennials and shrubs in the Butterfly garden
- Mulching the Garden and the Azalea Beds
- Constructing new steps from the gardens to the pavilion.
- Installing pads for the new trash cans.

Nathan Isley lead the team and on behalf of the DCP Board a VERY big thank you to you and all the great volunteers.

Also, big thanks to Contractors

👍 Ajax Woolley of Golden Rule Carpentry home remodeling of Durham.

👍 Matt Tuttle of First Impressions Lawn and Garden, Inc. of Chapel Hill. for providing power tools and oversight.

photos courtesy of Rachel Anderson

Also special thanks to DCP Board member extraordinaire Dan Jewell for his pre-planning, as well as day of oversight and assistance.

In addition to volunteering, the Mormon Church also donated all of the planting material. An anonymous donor furnished the construction material for the steps, pads and path stones

To see additional photos of the group in action go to

<http://picasaweb.google.com/Dandaroo/DCPWorkday42410?authkey=Gv1sRgCPra3eHgv4vbSA#>